What is a Modern Apprenticeship?

Modern Apprenticeships are funded through Skills Development Scotland and offer employers an opportunity to train new employees or upskill existing staff. They cover a huge range of job types and industry sectors. Apprentices will work towards an industry qualification, bringing new skills and ideas to your business.

They all contain the same 3 basic criteria:

- A Relevant SVQ (or alternative competency based qualifications)
- Core Skill
- Industry specific training

What are the benefits?

- Train new employees
- Upskill existing staff
- Boost productivity
- Receive help towards training costs
- Broaden your talent pool
- £50 bonus on completion

How will this be delivered?

This will be a combination of both work based learning and face to face visits with your assigned Assessor.

What's in it for you as an employer?

The Sector has identified a need for Modern Apprenticeships to train and recognise the hard work service staff carry out on a daily basis. Through their Training Plan you, your trainee and the College are all committed to their progression and development.

What qualifications are available?

- Social Services & Healthcare SCQF Level 6, 7 & 9
- Care Services Leadership & Management SCQF Level 10
- Healthcare Support (Clinical) SCQF Level 6 & 7
