

Partners for Integration Event

Future proofing ethical and collaborative commissioning and procurement by sharing areas of best practice.

13th October 2022, 13:00-16:30hrs (online)

ScottishCare
Voice of the independent care sector

Join us to hear 2 different examples of collaboration in Fife and Aberdeen.

The presentations will take us through the journey of how the Collaboratives began and the impact they have had. There will be an opportunity at the end to ask the presenters any questions you may have.

While this is a Homecare event a warm welcome is extended from the Pfl team to all.

Fife Care at Home Collaborative

Working with shared interest, common purpose and moving forward together. Hear more about a collaborative journey of necessity to address ethical dilemmas and the development of the Collaborative approach in Fife.

- Paul Dundas, Independent Sector Lead, Fife
- Alan Adamson, Service Manager, Quality Assurance, Fife HSCP

Aberdeen City

Cross-sector collaboration, innovation and opportunities.

Learn more about the outcome focused commissioning, alternative approach to care delivery and providers lead collective procurement.

- Gosia Duncan, Independent Sector Lead, Aberdeen City
- Frances Loughery, Development Officer, Aberdeen City
- Marcus Nisbet, Director, Specialist Resource Solutions

Collaboration not competition

Respect not trust

Progress not perfection

Outcomes not time & task

To reserve a place please contact Tracy (tracy.doyle@scottishcare.org)